The Barronett Community Center, which was founded in 1980, continues to host yearly free activities which include children's free Easter and Halloween parties with food, games and prizes. In addition, we host fun community events like the yearly Ice Fishing, Colorfest and Hunters events.

Our Barronett Community Center can host 200 guests with full kitchen and bar area. This includes an active baseball field and playground. Rentals have included Graduation, Weddings, Anniversaries, Business and Family events to name a few.

- Acoustic improvements within the Community Center to reduce noise levels and improve sound quality for meetings, community events, celebrations, and public programs.
- Replacement and updating picnic tables to provide safe, durable outdoor seating for families attending events, baseball games, and park activities.
